

A true democracy does not snoop on it's citizens. In the information age, democracy should guarantee "freedom" to privacy.

I'm against any form of assistance to law enforcement agencies that listen in on domestic communications.